CALL TO ORDER

Mayor Pro Tem Ted Frantz opened the meeting at 7:05 P.M. Audience members included Councilmember Dee Claypool, Elaine Coles, Janet Daly, Dick Davis, Jill Davis, Janet Deaton, David Douglas of Integrity Permitting, Ken Fisher, Councilmember John Franklin, Russ Haehl, Michael Heijer, Richard Herzberg, Marianne Jones, Gary Linden, Vilma McComsey, Ernie Norehad, Penny O'Byrne, Rod Olson, Annie Ottesen, Virginia Park, Peter Powell, Ann Pryde, Joe Sabey, Councilmember Heather Smith and Dan Temkin. Jack McCullough, Rich Hill and Courtney Kaylor of McCullough Hill Cleary PS law firm and Deputy Clerk Linda Longmire were also present. Additional residents came in shortly after the meeting started.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Mayor Pro Tem Frantz opened the meeting explaining that the Open Public Meeting Act required legal notification when the Town of Hunts Point had public meetings and Councilmembers were in attendance. He stated that the Shoreline Management Plan subject is an important issue and the Town of Hunts Point wants public participation. The meeting was an informational meeting organized by resident Dan Temkin. Mayor Pro Tem Frantz asked him to introduce his invited guests from McCullough Hill Cleary law firm.

Mr. Temkin provided background information on the Shoreline Management Act, its importance and how it would affect waterfront property owners. He then turned the meeting over to Mr. McCullough who introduced the members of the firm and the role each would play if there was representation of property owners. Ms. Kaylor and Mr. Hill added additional information. Mr. McCullough then opened the floor to a question and answer period from the audience.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting adjourned at 8:50 P.M.
